Jimmy Tohill has been capturing wondrous moments of Alaska's endless beauty with his camera and poetry since he first came to Alaska as a river guide and photographer in the spring of 1987. He and his wife, Vicki, live in their self built log home in Healy. The Tohills own and operate OLD SOURDOUGH STUDIO at the McKinley Chalet Resort in Denali. These books measure 6.5"x 8.5" ~ affordable and a perfect size for travel, your coffee table, easy for flipping through and reading and great for gifts. Stunning wildlife, landscape, flora and aurora photography from all around the Last Frontier. Educational and inspirational poetry for all ages.

The Spirit of Alaska 2024 Calendar is Tohill's best yet! ~ functional and beautiful wall art ~

Four Great Alaska Seafood Cookbooks — from — LaDonna Gundersen

Fisherwoman and master chef LaDonna Rose Gundersen cooks up some great cookbooks for those who want their salmon, and other Alaskan seafood to come out looking and tasting great!

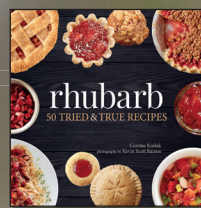

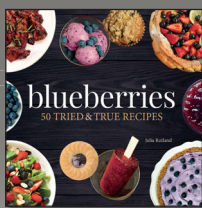

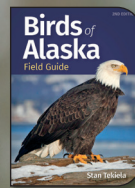

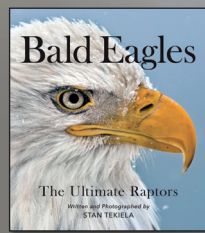

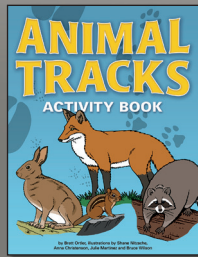

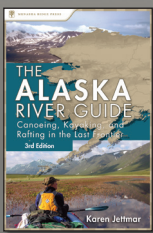

LaDonna and her husband Ole, fish for salmon from their Ketchikan-based fishing boat and know the fish inside and out. Ole's first rate photography makes these dishes jump off the page and look as good as LaDonna prepares them.

These are great books for fishermen and women who want to know the best way to prepare their fresh caught Alaska fish.

They are great sellers at Alaska fishing lodges, charter fishing boat services and other fishing-related businesses.
